

Synopsis for Holiday Submission

Cruel lessons taught her not to give her heart—but her heart is what he demands.

Caro Anderson feared two things. The wrong kind of sexual dominant—and never finding the right one. In her search for a loving yet severe master, a disastrous experience taught her to protect her body and emotions. Yet she longs for a stern master to love. Encouraged by a friend, Caro takes a chance with a handsome British Dom and agrees to spend one weekend exploring their darkest fantasies.

Rhys Devlin believes he's finally found a submissive who desires the same sexual extremes he does. But when he gets his perfect girl tied down for the weekend, he discovers he wants more than her body. He wants her carefully guarded heart.

Together they discover how much is enough, and what they truly need.
